Profile

Mark W. Matheis

Program Facilitator

Professional Experience

Mark started his career with Walt Disney World Co. in 1990 at the Disney Reservation Center. Since that time, Mark has advanced through a variety of key roles, from Front Desk host and trainer at Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa to his current role as program instructor at Disney Institute.

In 1992, Mark was selected from more than 350 applicants to be an instructor for Disney Traditions, the company-wide orientation program. Mark's interest and passion for "the Disney story" quickly led him to a level of knowledge that has earned him recognition as a Disney historian, as well as a leading resource for the detail that supports a vast array of program content.

In his Disney Institute role, Mark has delivered more than 1,200 Disney Adult Discoveries programs, Entertainment Arts classes, and Team programs. He has designed and delivered special experiences for the Official Disneyana Conventions, both in Florida and California. He is consistently recognized for his excellence in program delivery.

Education

Mark received his associate of arts degree from Miami-Dade Community College in Miami, Florida.
